

I would think anything that would help drivers and vacationers have a safer commute or sightseeing trip to these cities who have weather and traffic broadcast on the XM radio channels would be welcomed by all. Even though my area is not lucky enough to have this XM radio service, we do travel by RV quite a lot and being able to get weather and traffic on demand is invaluable. The monumental shortsightedness and selfishness of the NAB does not serve the public.